Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Deb Halling, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota after 24 years of service; and,

Whereas, Throughout Deb's career, she has worked diligently in various state positions with the Department of Education and the Department of Labor and Regulation, where she has displayed ingenuity, creativity, friendship, humor, and loyalty in her roles as the youth program specialist and as the data management specialist; and,

Whereas, Deb can be counted on for asking the tough questions and playing her role within her team, and she demonstrates the ability to think ahead and think about the big picture and is a dedicated worker, and her service will be deeply missed by her co-workers within the Department of Labor and Regulation; and,

Whereas, On April 8, 2016, Deb will retire to spend more time with her husband, Jim, family, and enjoy her time as a cowgirl by working at the Casey Tibbs Rodeo Center; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirty-first Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
